We would like to thank you for your interest in Fred Darge. This is the second edition of Fred Darge Paints the Big Bend and Beyond. Although we have been fortunate enough to have assembled a great deal of information about this historically significant artist that has left us all with a legacy of his important art work, we are by no means quitting our research.

If you have any information, no matter how small, we would appreciate hearing from you. If you are fortunate enough for instance to have a painting by Fred Darge, we would like to see it. It is our intention to up-date this unique online book approximately every six months as we gather more information. We know there is more information out there, it is for people like yourself to let us know what you have.
